Michigan Corn Growers Association Elects New Leaders

LANSING – The Michigan Corn Growers Association (MCGA) elected a new slate of officers to lead the organization at its board meeting this month.

The 2017 MCGA officers are:
President: Jason McConnachie - Deckerville
Vice President: Dan Cable - Maybee
Secretary/Treasurer: Janna Fritz - Bad Axe

“It has been my pleasure to serve as president of the Michigan Corn Growers Association,” said outgoing president Alvin Ferguson. “I am thankful for the dedication and hard work of our board members and for the continued willingness of our more than 1,400 members to stand up on behalf of our industry. I know that these officers will continue to serve our organization well, and I’m excited to see what the future holds for the Michigan Corn Growers Association.”

Ferguson will continue to serve as an ex-officio member of the board in the position of chairman.

The Michigan Corn Growers Association (MCGA) is a grassroots organization of grower members dedicated to increasing the profitability of corn production. The MCGA is the only organization in Michigan that works solely on behalf of the state’s corn growers for pro-agriculture legislation. The MCGA works to ensure that corn growers’ voices are heard at the local, state and national levels. Find out more online at www.micorn.org.
