

Ugg Release Form

Disclaimer: In an effort to provide you with the best service possible, we need you to know about the risk involved in the Ugg cleaning process. We send out our Uggs to be cleaned by professionals who specialize in cleaning Uggs. The process is longer and more expensive, and can damage your garment, even when done by a professional. Because we are not doing it ourselves, we do not assume responsibility for your Uggs. By signing below, you acknowledge this risk and do not hold MobilePRO Cleaners responsible for any damage caused.

The process can take a couple of weeks, but we strive to return your garments to you as soon as we can. Please sign the form below and include it with your Uggs in your bag.

I understand this service requires a $25 non-refundable deposit prior to service:

- I authorize MobilePro Cleaners to charge my credit card on file
- I have included a Payment Authorization Form and authorize MobilePro Cleaners to charge the credit card provided
- I have enclosed a $25 check made payable to MobilePro Cleaners
